

KBC: From regional office to landmark building, the "Artevelde Tower"

The cabling used was Visipatch 360 (Commscope Systimax). Simac delivered a detailed analysis for each floor focusing on: cable density and correct accessory selection, allowing for the implementation of a complete solution. For the durations of the entire project a site supervisor was dedicated.

