

Scandinavian Tobacco Group: Assuring continuity through specialist knowledge

The STG site in Houthalen provides IT services for all the other locations worldwide. Many critical business processes rely on this infrastructure making optimal availability crucial.

Simac provided two full-time experts to help organise the essential IT projects. Next to this they consult STG on how to organise and manage its IT more efficiently. The transfer of knowledge is considered with each project.

